INDEX TO VOL. LXXIX

The titles of articles are printed in italics

ACH

ACHILLES-HEEL of Great Britain, Ireland regarded by Germany as the, 966–976
African exploration, Kilimanjaro and Kenya, 879–887
Agriculture and rural industries for women, 126–138
Ainslie (Douglas), Benedetto Croce and his Activities, 1307–1317
Ali (A. Yusuf), Lord Hardinge's Viceroyalty, 703–716
Alternative Government, Where is the? 45–51
America, The Spiritual Crisis in, 105–113
America's dependence on British seapower, 344–357
American attitude toward German frightfulness, 637–647
Anglo-French alliance and Shakespeare tercentenary, 1259–1279
Army and Navy, Ministry of War and General Staff, plan of campaign, 366–377
Asiatic Turkey, The Future of, 1221–47
Astronomical discovery and the Unseen in Nature, 594–605
Atrocités Allemands en Belgique, Lettre à un Neutre sur les, 832–846
Australian View of the Reorganisation of the Empire, 717–724
Austria-Hungary, An Unwilling Foe, 1111–1123
Austrian Archduke and German Kaiser at Konopisht, 253–273
Austro-German attack on Serbia, 67–84

BALTIC, The, and the Sequel to a Premature Peace, 791–799
Balzac Re-read, 378–399
Barclay (Sir Thomas), 'In Gremio Deorum': a Super-Historical Phantasy (Berlin, 19—?), 554–568

BRO

Barker (J. Ellis), Democracy and the Iron Broom of War, 289–323; How the Army has Ruined Germany, 768–790; The Future of Asiatic Turkey, 1221–1247
Barrington (Viscountess), The Cult of Economy, 861–878
Bataille de l'Yser, La, 585–593
Battine (Capt. Cecil), One Condition of Victory, 516–527
Bayfield (Rev. M. A.), A Classical Death Phantom, 1007–1021
Beaconsfield (Lord) contrasted with President Lincoln, 409–415
Belgian army and battle of the Yser, 585–593
Belgium, Charlotte Brontë and, 847–860
Belgium during French Revolutionary Wars, 1058–1091
Benson (Arthur C.), Education after the War, 1291–1306
Berlin after the War, 554–568
Berry (Mrs. Dickinson), An Unwilling Foe: Sidelights on Austria-Hungary, 1111–1123
Bible of the Japanese Soldier, The, 1318–1327
Blockade, The, and the Honour of England, 988–1006
Bread adulteration, unclean milk, and infant mortality, 627–636
Brend (William A.), Infant Mortality: a Problem of the Land, 606–626
Britain's danger from German ascendancy in the Baltic, 791–799
British diplomacy and influence of democracies over foreign relations, 1248–1258
British Empire, its future government, 717–724, 1157–1169
British Merchant Sailors under War Conditions, 448–460
Brown (Lilian Rowland), Charlotte Brontë and Belgium, 847–860

BRU

Brussels and Charlotte Brontë, 847–860
Budget, The, and the War, 1124–1142
Bury (Bishop), 'Holy Russia,' 648–657; Concerning Prisoners of War, 800–812; Is anything wrong with German Protestantism? 358–365
Bylinys, or epic songs of Russia, 912–919

CABINET and Constitution for the Empire, 717–739
Cabinet Government and Imperial defence, 493–515
Camps and treatment of prisoners of war in England and Germany, 800–812
Champagne and Lorraine in War Time, 211–219
Chance (Lady), The Thrift Campaign, 338–343
Charlotte Brontë and Belgium, 847–860
Chesterfield (Lord), A Poor Relation of, 181–197
Chesterton (Cecil), The Return of Rousseau: a Reply to Mr. Mallock, 658–669
Child life and how to preserve it, 606–626; 1037–1057
Children's Food, The, 627–636
Christianity and religious thought in Russia, 648–657
Civil service requirements and Public Schools, 478–492
Church Life in Lutheran Germany, 358–365
Church of England and the War, Bishops and economy, 400–408
Clearing Skies, 920–932
Clemenceau and criticism of French Government, 540–553
Coalition Government and its alternative, 30–51; its conduct of war and diplomacy, 920–932
Coldstream Guards in Flanders in 1793, 1058–1091
Comédie Humaine, La, Balzac's, 378–399
Comedy and tragedy in War, 428–434
Commercial war and sham peace, 933–965
Conscience and the Conscientious Objector, 977–987
Contrasts: Benjamin Disraeli and Abraham Lincoln, 409–415
Creagh (General Sir O'Moore), The General Staff, 366–377
Croce (Benedetto) and his Activities, 1307–1317
Cromer (Earl of), Vox Populi, 528–527; Rousseau, 1022–1036; Democracy and Diplomacy, 1248–1258
Crowd, Psychology of the, 528–539

ENG

Cult of Economy, The, 861–878
Cumin (John), Archbishop of Dublin, Early Career of, 1099–1110
Currey (Commander E. Hamilton), Sea Power in its Dual Relation, 1170–1183
Cyprus, Offer of, to Greece, 240–252

DAVRAY (H. D.), Impressions of a French Optimist, 52–66
Dawbarn (Charles), Some Causes of Misconception: Impressions of an English Resident in Paris, 1280–1290
Death Duties and Income Tax, 220–224
Death Phantom, A Classical, 1007–1021
Delcourt (Prof. Joseph), Shakespeare and the French Mind, 1259–1279
Democracy and Diplomacy, 1248–1258
Democracy and the Iron Broom of War, 289–323
Democracy, Collectivism, and popular sovereignty, 658–657
Democracy, Current Theories of, 225–239
Democratic government and psychology of the crowd, 528–539
Democratic ideals and struggle against despotism, 105–113
Dewar (George A. B.), The Government: Where is the Alternative? 45–51
Dimnet (Abbé Ernest), The Cry for Authority in France, 540–553
Disraeli (Benjamin) and Abraham Lincoln contrasted, 409–415
Disraeli, O'Connell, and Irish hatred of England, 1184–1189
Dublin, The first English Archbishop of, John Cumin, 1099–1110

EASTERN Equatorial Africa and its explorers, 879–887
Economy among wage-earners, 670–685
Economy, The Cult of, 861–878
Economy, war profits, and need of thrift, 324–343
Education after the War, 1291–1306
Education and the Public Service, 478–492
Emperor Meiji of Japan, Rescript of, on his resumption of civil and military authority, 1318–1327
Empire Cabinet, The Coming of the, 725–739
Empire on the Anvil, The, 1157–1169
Empire, Reorganisation of the, 493–515, 717–739
England's War against Napoleon, Crabb Robinson's Diary, 1092–1098
English and French intelligence compared, 1280–1290

ENG

English relief work in Champagne and Lorraine, 211–219
Erasmus, the Educator of Europe, 569–584
Ex-Service men after the War, provision and employment for, 1358–1382

FEDERAL Council for Imperial defence, 516–527
Federal Unions within the Empire, 1157–1169
Finance Acts and inequalities of taxation, 220–224
Fisher (Joseph H.), What is wrong in Ireland? 1184–1189
Flanders, Fighting in 1793-94, 1058–1091
Folk-songs of Russia, 912–919
Food for children, 627–636
Food Economy League and encouragement of thrift, 338–343
Food prices, State control of, in Germany, 12–29
Forests of Russia and their Present Importance to the Allies, 686–702
France, The Cry for Authority in, 540–553
Frankfort-on-Main during Napoleon's Wars, 1092–1098
French Armies, With the, 740–767
French invasion of Ireland in 1796, 153–172
French Lines, Behind the, 211–219
French literature, Balzac's position in, 378–399
French Mind, Shakespeare and the, 1259–1279
French Optimist, Impressions of a, 52–66
Frewen (Moreton), Memories of Melton Mowbray, 139–152; The Monroe Doctrine and the Great War, 344–357

GATTIE (Alfred Warwick), National Railways after the War, 1328–1342
General Staff, The, 336–377
German and English social training and patriotism compared, 435–447
German Chancellor on Russian triumphs, 1343–1357
German cruelties in Belgium, 832–846
German exhaustion and Allies' increasing strength, 52–66
German hegemony in the Baltic, danger to other nations, 791–799
German Nation, The 'Peaceful,' Real Aims of, 950–965
German Navy and mercantile marine, competition with Great Britain, 1170–1183
German Protestantism, Is anything wrong with? 358–365

HUN

German war methods and how to meet them, 1–11
Germany and Ireland; 'England's Achilles-Heel,' 966–976
Germany, How she can pay, 1143–1156
Germany, How the Army has Ruined, 768–790
Germany's Food Problem and its 'Kontrolle,' 12–29
General Staff, The, 366–377
Government by will of the people, Democratic theories of, 225–239
Government, monarchical, oligarchical, or democratic, tested by war, 289–323
Government, The; Criticism of Ministers, and Where is the Alternative? 30–51
Greatest Privilege, Our, and Greatest Achievement, 813–831
Greece, England's offer of Cyprus to, 240–252
Greek New Testament and practical Christianity according to Erasmus, 569–584
Green (F. E.), Home Colonisation by Soldiers and Sailors, 888–905
Gribble (Francis), How Germany can pay, 1143–1156

HALLOWS (Capt. Ralph W.), A Poor Relation of Lord Chesterfield, 181–197
Handley (Rev. Hubert), The War and Episcopal Penitence, 400–408
Hannay (Canon), Recruiting in Ireland To-day, 173–180
Hardinge's (Lord) Viceroyalty, 703–716
Headlam (J. W.), The Real Aims of the 'Peaceful' German Nation, 950–965
Hearnshaw (Prof. F. J. C.), The Baltic, and the Sequel to a Premature Peace, 791–799
Hilton (John), Germany's Food Problem and its 'Kontrolle,' 12–29
Hoche's Expedition to Ireland in 1796, 153–172
'Holy Russia,' 648–657
Home Colonisation for Soldiers and Sailors, 888–905
Home industries after the War, 1358–1370
Hopgood (Harold B.), Death Duties and Income Tax, 220–224
Hotham (Charles) and Coldstream Guards in Flanders in 1793, 1058–1091
Howe (P. P.), Then and Now; a Glance at the Pages of Crabb Robinson, 1092–1098
Humour and War, 428–434
Hungarians as unwilling foes, 1111–1121

Hunting-men at Melton Mowbray, Reminiscences of, 139–152
Hurd (Percy), Behind the French Lines: Champagne and Lorraine in War Time, 211–219
Hyndman (H. M.), The National Railways after the War, 461–477; a reply to, 1328–1342

IMMEDIATE Action, A Case for, 906–911
Imperial Constitution and union of the Empire, 717–739
Imperial defence, A Federal Council for, 516–527
'In Gremio Deorum,' Berlin, 19—? 554–568
Income Tax, Death Duties and, 220–224
India under Lord Hardinge, 703–716
Infant Mortality, 606–626
Infantile Mortality, Inquiry into, 1037–1057
Integrity of the Empire: The Offer of Cyprus to Greece, 240–252
Intemperance among women, 85–104
International law and the British blockade, 988–1006
Ireland as England's vulnerable part, German ideas of, 966–976
Ireland in Two Wars, 153–180
Ireland, What is wrong in? 1184–1189
Irish Enigma again, The, 1184–1220
Irish Entente, An Appeal for: a Lesson from South Africa, 1190–1202
Irish rebellion, the Sinn Feiners, and Nationalists, 1203–1220
Irish rebels and German intrigues, 966–976

JAPANESE Soldier, The Bible of the, 1318–1327
Johnson (Lionel), The Poetry of, 416–427
Johnston (Sir Harry H.), Education and the Public Service, 478–492; Kilimanjaro, 879–887
Jusserand (J. J.), on Shakespeare in France under the old régime, 1262 et seq.

KAISER and Archduke: The Pact of Konopisht, 253–273
Kilimanjaro, 879–887
Kingston (Gertrude), 'The Same Tongue but not the Same Language': some Impressions in the United States, 1914–15, 637–647
Konopisht, The Pact of, Kaiser and Archduke, 253–273

LAND, Settlement of returned soldiers and sailors on the, 888–905
Land, Women's Work on the, 126–138
Lathbury (D. C.), Criticism of Ministers, 30–44; Clearing Skies, 920–932
Lilly (W. S.), Balzac Re-read, 378–399
Lincoln (Abraham) and Disraeli contrasted, 409–415
Lodge (Sir Oliver), A Classical Death Phantom, 1007–1021
Longford (Joseph H.), The Bible of the Japanese Soldier, 1318–1327
Lorraine and Champagne, English relief work in, during war-time, 211–219
Low (Sidney), The Coming of the Empire Cabinet, 725–739
Lucas (Sir Charles), The Empire on the Anvil, 1157–1169
Lutheran Germany, lack of corporate Church life in, 358–365

MACHRAY (Robert), The Sacrifice of Serbia, 67–84; The Resurgence of Russia, 1343–1357
Mais (S. P. B.), A Public School after Eighteen Months of War, 114–125; Our Greatest Privilege and Greatest Achievement, 313–831
Mallock (W. H.), Current Theories of Democracy, 225–239; a reply to, 658–669
Marriott (J. A. R.), The Thrift Campaign, 324–337; War Finance: the Fourth War Budget, 1124–1142
Martin (Anna), Working Women and Drink, 85–104
Maud (Constance E.), The Children's Food, 627–636
Melton Mowbray, Memories of, 139–152
Mercer (Bishop), Humour and War, 428–434
Merchant ships, their part in the war, 448–460
Mesopotamia and future of Asiatic Turkey, 1221–1247
Ministers, Criticism of, 30–44
Misconception, Some Causes of: Impressions of an English Resident in Paris, 1280–1290
Monroe Doctrine, The, and the Great War, 344–357
Morgan (Prof. J. H.), With the French Armies, 740–767
Morris (Sir Malcolm), A Case for Immediate Action, 906–911
Murray (Rev. Robert H.), Hoche's Expedition to Ireland in 1796, 153–172
Myers (F. W. H.) and psychical research, 1007–1021

NAP

NAPLES, antiquities of, and the philosophical writings of Benedetto Croce, 1307–1317
National defence and conscientious objectors, 977–987
National education as affected by the War, 1291–1306
National Railways after the War, 461–477, 1328–1342
Nationalities, their fate under German supremacy, 950–965
Nelson's wife and stepson, 198–210
Neutral trade and belligerent rights, 988–1006
Nisbet (Fanny), 198–210
Nolan (R. S.), Social Training and Patriotism in Germany and in England, 435–447
Northern Europe and freedom of the Baltic, 791–799

OVID'S story of Alcyone and Ceyx, 1007–1021
Oxford reminiscences, Lionel Johnson's poetry, 416–427

PARADISE (Rev. F. I.), Spiritual Crisis in America, 105–113
Paris, An English resident's impressions in, 1280–1290
Passelecq (Fernand), Lettre à un Neutre sur les Atrocités Allemands en Belgique, 832–846
Paterson (Arthur), Preparation for Peace, 1358–1370
Patriotism, German and English, 435–447
Peace, Lasting, The Only Way to, 1–11
Peaceful Germans, their world-wide ambitions, 950–965
Piggott (Sir Francis), The Integrity of the Empire: The Offer of Cyprus to Greece, 240–252; The Reorganisation of the Empire, 493–515; The Blockade and the Honour of England: a Reply to the 'Quarterly Review,' 988–1006
Premature Peace, Sequel to a, The Baltic, 791–799
Preparation for Peace, 1358–1370
Prisoners of War, Concerning, 800–812
Privilege, Our greatest—Shakespeare, 813–831
Prussian militarism, how it has ruined Germany, 768–790
Psychical phenomena and the late F. W. H. Myers, 1007–1021
Public School, A, after Eighteen Months of War, 114–125

RAILWAY reorganisation and State control, 461–477
Railways and their control after the War, 1328–1342

STA

Randolph (Mrs.), Fanny Nisbet, 198–210
Real Aims of the 'Peaceful' German Nation, 950–965
Recruiting in Ireland To-day, 173–180
Renwick (W. H.), British Merchant Sailors under War Conditions, 448–460
Robinson (Crabb), Glance at the Pages of, 1092–1098
Rousseau, 1022–1036
Rousseau, The Return of, 658–669
Russia, The Resurgence of, 1343–1357
Russian Byliny, A, 912–919
Russian timber and future of forestry, 686–702

SADLER (Hugh), Contrasts: Benjamin Disraeli and Abraham Lincoln, 409–415
Sailors and war risks, 448–460
Scharlieb (Dr. Mary), The Hope of the Future: Causes of Infantile Mortality, 1037–1057
Schliemann (Prof.) and Irish rebellion, 966–976
Sea Power in its Dual Relation, 1170–1183
Sellers (Edith), Wilful Waste, Woful Want, 670–685
Serbia, Hospital work in, 1111–1123
Serbia, The Sacrifice of, 67–84
Shadwell (Dr. Arthur), The Only Way to Lasting Peace, 1–11; Victory and the Alternative, 274–288; The Trials to Come, 933–949
Shakespeare and the French Mind, 1259–1279
Shakespeare revealed in his work, 813–831
Sheridan (J. Clerc), An Appeal for an Irish Entente: a Lesson from South Africa, 1190–1202
Sichel (Walter), Germany and Ireland: 'England's Achilles-Heel,' 966–976
Sinn Fein Rebellion, The, 1203–1220
Sinnett (A. P.), This World's Place in the Universe, 594–605
Social Training and Patriotism in Germany and in England, 435–447
Soldiers and Sailors, Home Colonisation by, 888–905
Soldiers, Our, after the War, 1371–1382
South African Union and self-government in Ireland, 1190–1202
Spiritual Crisis in America, The, 105–113
Stanhope (A. C.) and his cousin the Earl of Chesterfield, 181–197
State Socialism and Rousseau's philosophy, 1022–1036
State control of railways now and after the War, 461–477, 1328–1342

STE

Stebbing (E. P.), The Forests of Russia and their Present Importance to the Allies, 686–702
Steed (Henry Wickham), The Pact of Konopischt: Kaiser and Archduke, 253–273
Stirling (Mr.), Fighting in Flanders in 1793–1794, 1058–1091
Swinton (Captain George S. C.), Our Soldiers after the War, 1371–1382

TAXPAYERS and the War, 1124–1142
Thrift Campaign, The, 324–343
Thrift movement and working classes, 861–878
Timber imports and Russian forestry, 686–702
Trials to Come, The, 933–949, 1358–1382
Turkey, Asiatic, The Future of, 1221–1247

UNITED States, Impressions of, 'The Same Tongue but not the Same Language,' 637–647
Universe, Our World's place in the, 594–605
Unwilling foes, Our, in Austria-Hungary, 1111–1121

VANDERVELDE (Emile), La Bataille de l'Yser, 585–593
Venereal diseases, need for prevention, 906–911
Victory and the Alternative, 274–288
Victory, One Condition of, 516–527
Vox Populi, 528–539

WAR

WAR and Democratic Government, 289–323
War and Episcopal Penitence, 400–408
War, Education after the, 1291–1306
War Finance, The Fourth War Budget, 1124–1142
War, how to win the, and secure a conclusive peace, 1–11, 274–288
War indemnity, How to make Germany pay, 1143–1156
War, Railways after the, 1328–1342
War, The, and Irish patriotism, 173–180
War-time and Public Schools, 114–125
Watson (Prof. Foster), Erasmus, the Educator of Europe, 569–584
Waugh (Arthur), The Poetry of Lionel Johnson, 416–427
Welldon (Bishop), Conscience and the Conscientious Objector, 977–987
Wells (Dean of), The Early Career of John Cumin, Archbishop of Dublin, 1099–1110
Western Front, with the French armies, 740–767
Wilful Waste, Woful Want, 670–685
Wise (Hon. B. R.), The Reorganisation of the Empire: An Australian View, 717–724
Wolseley (Viscountess), Women's Work on the Land, 126–138
Working classes and thrift in war-time, 861–878
Working Women and Drink, 85–104
World's Place in the Universe, 594–605
Worsfold (W. Basil) on future government of the British Empire, 1157–1169
Wright (C. Hagberg), A Russian Biliny, 912–919

PRINTED BY
SPOTTISWOODE, BALLANTYNE & CO. LTD.
LONDON, COLCHESTER AND ETON, ENGLAND